His letter:

Well, we finally made it through one whole year of typing. I'll have to admit, it has been fun. I'm looking forward to seeing you again. But 'till then, the very best of luck to you. Love, Carol Kingery

Foreword

When our brief sojourn at William Fleming is a thing of the past, it is our hope that you may relive, by leafing through the Annual, the happy and friendly days of this year.

The days of this year have been abundant in notable events—some joyful, some sad, some exciting, some glorious, and some serious. Not only are these days important because of their meaning today, but for their meaning in days to come.

We have arranged the sections of the annual to coincide, as near as possible, with the time period having the most prominent dates relating to that section—The Administration with the beginning of school—Athletics with the time of District 6 Football Championship—Classes with the time of mid-term tests—Activities with the time of outings and social events—and Advertisements, which help to make the yearbook possible, to close the book.

A calendar distinguishes important or otherwise memorable days from the others by red print or some other contrasting means. Therefore, to immortalize the days and events of this school year, we have chosen as the theme of this yearbook, "Red-letter days of 1952-53."

Hello there Patay,
It certainly has been wonderful knowing and being in class with you. I thank you for all the typing paper "I let you use".

Each year the student body awaits anxiously for the annual and expects a better one than the year before. We, the Annual Staff of 1953, sincerely hope we have met these expectations and that this yearbook will be a book treasured for life.

Editing and publishing the COLONEL is a job of hard and constant work offset by the fun we have working together in class and on our yearly outing.

The first jobs are those of advertisement solicitation, subscription drive, and picture taking. Then follow the organizing of the book, the compiling of copy, the arranging of pictures, and the deciding of many problems. Some of the work is done with the help and cooperation of other students but the major part is done behind closed doors so that the content and design of the annual are a complete surprise to the students.

Now we can sit back and enjoy, as we are sure you will, the finished product of our labor. Look at it, read it, enjoy it; both today and in days to come.

The Principal

TO THE STUDENTS OF WILLIAM FLEMING HIGH SCHOOL:

Your school life has given you multiple opportunities to experience growth and personal development. Your Annual is an attempt to reflect some of those opportunities, with illustrations involving you and your friends.

That section headed Administration gives you the pictures of your faculty and information about them. We assume you know what many did, because you worked with them at various times. However, here you have a listing of degrees obtained, and subjects taught by each.

Classes, in the Annual, mean group divisions for administrative purposes. Each person is ranked with his class group according to the number of credits he has in September of the current term. Ninth graders must have completed eighth grade; tenth graders must have at least 3 units; eleventh graders must have at least 7 units; and twelfth graders must have at least 11 units. A minimum of 16 units is required for graduation. These units are earned by successful completion of the various courses offered in the high school program.

Activities represent our efforts to answer the human need for doing things together above and beyond the basic minimum. Your course work represents the least you can do to be exposed to what we call an education. Your sports, your clubs and your publications give you opportunities beyond this minimum, opportunities just as broad as you yourself wish to make them!

Our Sports program is geared to offer everybody something. Human nature being what it is, some find themselves participants in all; others have but a single favored field. We take pride in the number participating in each interscholastic sport for the boys, and in the excellent performance shown by our teams in each sport. We have no interscholastic program for girls, but our intramural offerings are broad enough to find appeal for any normal girl.

Administratively, we are always proud of our publications. Much hard work goes into our Newspaper, and into our Annual. And we believe the end products show that it is effort well spent. Our Clubs are always into some type of action which provides for fun and training for members and they often extend benefits to other youth groups or to adults apart from the school.

Our advertisers are our financial backers. It is through their contributions in cash that we are able to produce an annual. The sale price would pay only a small portion of the cost. We are honor bound to support these advertisers even as they are supporting us. Keep them in mind! Visit them! Patronize them!

The Coaches

COACH FRED SMITH

COACH CON DAVIS

We, the football players, wish to express our appreciation to Coach Smith and Coach Davis for the training they have given us. They have spent hours thinking, planning, and worrying about the outcome of the games we were to play. They have spent hours teaching us how to play football. They have trained us to be outstanding athletes and good sports.

To our Coaches, we give credit for having the highest scoring football team in the history of our school. While we glory in our success of the year, we give thanks to the Coaches.

District Six and Blue Ridge Regional Football Champions

The phrase, "Fleming Will Win Tonight," is certainly true of the football team this year. The Colonels made an impressive mark not only in their own record book but in the City, County, and State records. The team scored 285 points to the opponent's 59 which gave them the highest scoring record ever achieved. Both the District Six Championship and the Blue Ridge Regional Championship were won this year.

Our lightning-like backs and scrappy linemen always had the score completely out of reach sometime during the third period and then turned the mopping up over to the reserves. Except for the opening game with Jefferson, the aggressive Colonels were never pushed into playing a full game of real football. With the exception of the game with Andrew Lewis, in which the Wolverines scored in the starting minutes, the first team was never scored upon and always the opponent's score came late in the game when the reserves were playing.

As far as picking out individual stars, defensively or offensively, that job would be impossible. "The Colonels" was a team in every sense of the word. Every player did his job and did it to the best of his ability. Never has a team played together with such unity. When we scored a touchdown, there was more behind the story than the ball carrier scoring. The linemen and the other backs threw blocks and carried out their vital assignments in order that the ball carrier could score. Without this he would have never gained a yard. This teamwork was the key to the success of our team.

With the lights of this most successful football season fading, the memories of this team will never be forgotten by the players or supporters. Looking over the season it can easily be said that the 1952 football team was one of the best—if not the best—to ever wear the Blue and Gold.

DISTRICT SIX CHAMPIONS

Fleming Cagers

A coach's dream of an excellent basketball team is of one which has five superior players on it. They must be good defensive players and good shots from anywhere on the court. In order to have this dream team, a coach must spend much of his time and effort teaching these boys how to play with ease and confidence. He must teach them to play together as a team instead of playing for individual honors. This dream team is composed of two fast guards, two good rebounding forwards, and an excellent center, who can control the backboard and make the offensive plays click with perfection.

The Fleming Cagers were listed potentially as a team that might fill a coach's dream. We had eight lettermen who were experienced and ready to play good basketball. We had all the height that was needed to make an excellent team. We had the speed which is not absolutely necessary but is nice to have; we had the experience of the boys working together. But our team ran hot and cold during the regular season. Some of the reasons for this were the mental attitude of the boys, illness, and the lack of a complete experienced team.

The mental attitude of the whole team is the thing which determines the winning or losing of a game. The boys can be in good physical condition, but low mentally which was the biggest reason of our team's win and loss record. Of course illness, and an inexperienced team also affected our record. We had eight lettermen from last year, yet they didn't make up a complete team. We had fast guards and good forwards but no experienced center. It is said that no team is stronger than its center. In our case we were faced with building a new center. Coach tried several of the boys until he found one who had the potentialities of a good center. However, middle of the season, he broke his ankle and had to be replaced.

We are proud to say that this year's basketball team is the best all-round team that Fleming has ever had. There were no individual stars as in years past, but it was a team that played as a real team should. We can safely say that Fleming never stopped playing until the final whistle was blown in any game.

Although, we were beaten several times, our boys held high the tradition of good sportsmanship of which Fleming is proud. Our team went on to victory by winning the District Six Championship. With all these outstanding features, we think the William Fleming Basketball Team has had one of its most successful seasons.

Girls' Sports

"What are we going to do in gym class this year?"

"Oh, no—please, no exercises!"

"Glory be, but I'm sore."

So we began our year in the girls' gym class. Exercises first, a necessary evil to prove we still have many muscles we rarely use and to make us appreciate our sports program more.

Came the end of the exercises and the stiff muscles, and we took to the field for a round of softball games before the weather drove us indoors.

Volleyball was our first indoor sport. A snappy round-robin tournament in each gym class came first. The competition was close and exciting but class champions were finally decided. In third period the team led by Betty Hedge was champion and in fourth period Mary Ellen Purvis' team won. Then in an activity period game these two teams fought it out for school championship. Fourth period won this coveted distinction.

We also had two teams in the Recreation League, a Blue and a Gold. We didn't win any trophies but we know no one else had any more fun.

Basketball season started just before Christmas holidays and we again had a round-robin tournament in each gym class. Each team played a total of fourteen games. The season was climaxed by a good fast game between the team from third period captained by Janice Collins and the one from fourth period captained by Bernita Geiser. Again the fourth period was victor.

Following basketball came paddle badminton, which was managed in the same way as the other sports.

Eighth graders who were class champs in volleyball were led by Betty Hambrick, and in basketball by Marita McDaniel.

Softball, as sure a sign of spring as the bluebirds and robins, took us out of doors into the sunshine and sometimes when the games were close we stayed when it rained a bit. Rain is good for flowers—so why not for girls? At any rate it all added up to more points toward the coveted numerals and letters in G. A. A.

This year, we believe, we can truthfully say the Girls' Athletic Association has been a success. More and more girls are earning points, requesting membership and going ahead to earn their numerals and letters.

Betty Matthews, Jeane Menefee and "Liz" Hambrick had earned their letters when this was written and Bernita Geiser, Sylvia Bushnell, Mary Ellen Purves and Phyllis Kelley will have theirs by the end of the year.

In league basketball the Gold team did very well in a hotly contested battle for second place.

We held our first G. A. A. supper—a "pot-luck" affair at the Oakland Baptist Church Recreation Hall. Such fun—and so much food! Perhaps in another year we can have more socials—we hope.

Come on, girls, join with us! The G. A. A. is one organization that believes in "the more the merrier" and the more girls we can get actively interested in sports the better we'll like it.

Often during our five years at Fleming, we have wondered if we would ever reach our Senior year. The old school clock has a way of poking at a most dreadfully slow pace when we are watching for time to pass. Now that our coveted freedom is almost won, we are tinged with sadness. With goodbye looming before us, we are thinking that the years passed at Fleming have been happy ones.

Long shall we remember our days as Seniors—school dances; sports; dramatics; “Jenny Kissed Me”; Senior Banquet; Capping; Baccalaureate; Commencement—these activities will always stand out vividly in our memories.

*Always remember our Bible Class.
 It's been a swell year. Be good and study hard.*

Good luck always

The initial activity of the Junior Class was an assembly comprised of variety acts.

In December, the Junior Class sponsored the annual Christmas dance at which Betty Lois Atkins was crowned "Holly Queen."

April found the Class accepting plaudits on its successful Minstrel.

To climax the year's activities the class honored the graduating class with the traditional Junior-Senior Prom.

The Student Cooperative Association, sponsored by the P. T. A., serves as the coordinating head of all club activities and major school projects. Every student is a member.

The council is composed of all club and class presidents, home-room representatives, and S. C. A. officers, who are elected annually by the student body. The council meets monthly and the officers preside at the assembly each month.

The S. C. A. conducted the first assembly, in which we gave a welcome to all the new and old students. In November, in recognition of American Education Week, the S. C. A. and the Beta Club gave a tea for the faculty and former graduates who are teaching in Roanoke.

One of our annual projects is the filling of Christmas baskets for the needy families. This year we filled more baskets than in any of the previous years. These baskets were presented during a very inspiring Christmas assembly program. Also during the Christmas season, we cooperated with the Chamber of Commerce in the Christmas Parade by having Carol Crockett as our representative.

Another project was the publication of the Student Handbook, which was begun last year. These books were prepared for the general information of both the old and new students.

S. C. A. delegates attended the District meeting in the fall and the State Convention in the spring, at Mary Washington College. Our president conducted a discussion group at the state convention.

The Spring Formal was a big success. Every one had a good time and the orchestra was enjoyed by all.

Another interesting experience of the year was an exchange of S. C. A. officers with those of Jefferson. This gave us an opportunity to observe the council at work and exchange ideas.

This has proven to be a very active year for the S. C. A., but it would not have been possible without the whole-hearted support of every student and the wonderful guidance of our sponsors, Mrs. Painter and Mrs. Gustin.

The National Beta Club is a leadership-service organization for high school students. It was founded to stimulate effort, reward achievement, and to encourage and assist its members to continue their education after high school. The Beta motto, is, "Ducamus aliis serviendo" (Let us lead by serving others).

This year the Beta Club held a formal induction service for new members in assembly. There also was an informal initiation supper held.

We sold football programs to raise the scholarship money which was given to Bob Wingo and Beverly Rakes.

To round up the year's activities, we held our annual Beta banquet.

We Belong to the Y-Teens

More than 250 Fleming Y-Teens decided to follow the National Y-Teen slogan, "I Belong," and become members of the Y. W. C. A. for 1952-53. Fleming girls this year realized the full meaning of "I Belong," for they have had many activities within their own clubs that gave the feeling of "Belonging." Also the local Y. W. C. A. offered opportunities of belonging to a city-county-wide organization; a State group, by entertaining the Y-Teen State Conference, and of a National organization, by making it possible for Roanoke Y-Teens to meet Miss Mary Perry and Miss Winifred Wygal of the National Board. Isolde Wachter, our exchange student from Germany, has given us a keener feeling of world-wideness and world fellowship. Having her as a member of our club has been a real joy and because of our friendship with her we sent 500 bars of Chocolates for Christmas carrying our spirit and our Christian love to her country.

The Dance Choruses, Teller Staff, and Choirs have given many girls opportunities to contribute to the clubs. For the first time two Y-Teen choirs were organized. Carol Crockett and Barbara Hostetter directed well and faithfully the Junior and Senior Choirs with Myrna Baldwin and Joe Ann Dobbins as accompanists. The Dance choruses were well trained by Ruth Downard and Doris Painter and Jo Ann McNeer was ever faithful as Editor of the Teller.

1—Junior Cabinet. 2—Half-Day Conference. 3—All aboard on the Carry-all! 4—Directors Carol and Barbara; Accompanists Myrna and Joe Ann. 5—Miss Self—Y-Teen Director. 6—Gilda and Santa (Billy Root). 7—Home Room Keys. 8—Sondra Rierson dancing. 9—Tea for Mary Parry. 10—Dishwashing after spaghetti supper. 11—Our adviser, Miss Morris. 12—Party for our daughters. 13—Madonna, Nancy Jo; Joseph, Donnie Jamison. 14—Senior Cabinet. 15—Halloween cabinet meeting. 16—Junior Trio: Jo Ann, Martha, Ruth. 17—Y-Teens in Washington: Mr. Painter and Miss Self. 18—Christmas Pageant cast, "With Love and Peace." 19—Heads and Assistants: Ruth and Phyllis; Doris and Patsy. 20—Christmas party for Iselde.

Our Y-Teen daughters, Gladys Bailey and Gilda Johnston, gave us joy as we shared with them our love, time and material gifts.

The cabinets have enjoyed their get-togethers when they planned activities such as Reception, Recognition Service, Fashion Show, Christmas Pageant, Holy Week Services, May Day, Dad-Daughter Dinner, Mother-Daughter Banquet, Officers' Training Clinic, Showers for the Y-Teen Daughters, Service projects, and other activities.

Nancy Jo and Martha, our capable presidents, led the cabinets into planning these worthwhile activities and ever kept in mind each Y-Teen as a part of the club.

The club appreciates the cooperation and good will of the faculty and the ever constant support and loyalty of the Y-Teen mothers.

It is always a pleasure to work with the Hi-Y's in joint projects such as Hi-Y—Y-Teen Banquets, Holy Week Services, May Day, and Pageants. We greatly appreciate the fine cooperation of Donnie Jamison, P. T. Johnson and their clubs in the Christmas program.

The Y-Teens have certainly felt more than ever the good feeling of "Belonging" to the local clubs, local Y. W. C. A., city-county group, State, National, and World organizations. All in all it has been a good year and it is hoped that each Fleming girl's life has been enriched, inspired, and made happier because of "Belonging to the Y-Teens."

The Senior Hi-Y had its first meeting in the fall at the Y. M. C. A. Our club along with the other clubs of the city, was host to the District Two conference which was held in November.

In addition to the meetings at school, the club had regular meetings at the "Y" every other Monday. We delivered baskets at Christmas and checked coats at the Spring Formal. These and other activities combined to provide a successful year.

The school year of '52 and '53 has been an active one for the Junior Hi-Y. The boys have participated in many minor activities as well as a few major ones.

The club had its own basketball and swimming teams at the Y. M. C. A. It also joined with the Y-Teens in presenting a Thanksgiving assembly.

The major project of the Junior Hi-Y is the upkeep of Colonel William Fleming's grave. The club previously had removed all the thick undergrowth. Now sowing of grass, the removal of a few stumps, and the purchase of a marker for the grave are big ambitions of the club.

The boys have also carried out some projects for the finances of the Junior Hi-Y.

At the end of the year, a picnic was held for the members.

In order to help those who will make journalism their career and to give those who are just interested in journalism a chance to see what goes on in the production of a newspaper, William Fleming proudly presents the Fleming Flash, a paper entirely in the hands of the journalism class.

The Flash, sponsored an assembly in September which was the kick-off for the subscription drive.

On April 10 and 11 members of the journalism class attended the S. I. P. A. convention which was held at Washington and Lee University.

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization composed of girls from the ninth grade through the twelfth, with one purpose in mind: learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better tomorrow.

The Fleming Chapter of the F. H. A. started off the year by giving a tea in honor of the new members.

In October at least ninety per cent of the permanent members attended the fall Roanoke Area Federation meeting held this year at Woodrow Wilson.

One phase of the F. H. A. program which the students always welcome is the presenting of pins which were received this year in February. At that time the second-year members were awarded pin guards.

At different times throughout the year, students sold furniture polish in order to add a little cash to our treasury.

To end the year, we saw a big turnout for the Spring Federation Meeting and for our annual outing which was our final activity.

Tenth Anniversary Year!

The fall season opened for Troupe 570 with happy memories still lingering as we recalled spring successes in our activities: "Imsdorf" brought a Distinguished at District and State Festival; "Men Are Like Street Cars" closed the successful 1951-52 season; the curtain of 1952-53 rang up with the fall play, "Snafu," making headlines of praises for Thespians and Senior Masquers; we visited and helped install Jefferson High's new Thespian Troupe 1006; we planned with eager anticipation our tenth anniversary party and dance at Longwood, with alumni Thespians our special guests; we labored long over our Festival play—this time a departure from custom—this time Act Three from Maxwell Anderson's great "Winterset"; we trouped together to see "Death of a Salesman," "Love's Labour's Lost," "The Philadelphia Story," and "Much Ado About Nothing," given by area college groups; our sponsor traveled to Cincinnati to attend A. N. T. A. and to represent us at the Christmas meeting of Thespian sponsors. The drive was continued for a better educational theatre in our community.

Literary season, 1952-53, saw much excitement in the literary field, many triumphs for Fleming contenders, so that, all in all, we can write "Success" to our season.

First, and most exciting, was the State Championship win of Peggy Lou Bower, who gained fame for herself and Fleming by emerging first speaker in Virginia in the American Legion contest in April, 1952.

Next, there was the State Championship debate team, composed of Hunter Akers and Richard Townsend, who carried the Blue and Gold to a decisive win at the University of Virginia by defeating all comers in State Debate for 1952.

Then there was the triumph of The Beacon, our creative writing booklet, with a state championship as the "Best Booklet in its Class in the State," and individual honors for Clarence Parker, Bill Jago, Robley Light, Mary Alice Powell, Paul Iddings, and Bernita Geiser.

The fall of 1952 brought a signal honor of first place to our talented and popular exchange student, Isolde Wachter from Germany, who won the Roanoke "I Speak for Democracy" Contest. Dean Doss won third honors in that, too, which gave to Fleming two out of three places in this contest. As THE COLONEL goes to press, we find Allen Ault busy at work on his American Legion Speech, while Bill, Clarence, Robley, Eddie, Sallie, and other Literary "Lights" are hard at work on debate material. Soon, speakers and readers must be chosen, and plans completed for our annual forensics. Some of this preparation is certain to add up to a trip to Charlottesville and perhaps, once again, VICTORY!

In the meantime, we carry on by speaking on city programs, for many civic drives; we serve on radio programs; we plan assembly programs and learn, by serving our community, the fascinating business of reading, speaking, debating, spelling, and writing for ourselves, and for the public.

CURTAIN CALLS

The season was ushered in with brisk tempo, as voices were raised in civic speeches of energetic pleas. Harry Evans, Crystella Stultz, Isolde Wachter, Eddie Brown—our quartet who spoke for the Community Fund.

Then came the "Voice of Democracy" contest with Isolde and Dean Doss emerging as first and third place champions of Roanoke!

The Christmas Assembly carried the Melody of Old English Carols, intermingled with the clashing discord of old Morley's ghostly chains, as six scenes from Dickens' "Christmas Carol" came to life upon the stage. Beautiful lighting effects and good acting added up to a fine performance. Ed Brown was Scrooge; Dean Doss—Bob Cratchett; Fred—John Williams; Barbara Hostetter—Mrs. Dilber; Gretchen Lemon—Mrs. Cratchett; Janet Carter—Tiny Tim; Carol Crockett, Ann Meyer, and Sarah Whitehead, the spirits of Christmas Past, Present, and Future; while Mollie Sneed, Betty Smothers, Eleanor Durham, Pat Muddiman, John Simmons, Bob Wingfield, James Walker, Judy King, James Fagg, and Joe Beard rounded out the cast.

CURTAIN CALLS

The Thespians scored with "Snafu," and were, of course, aided by the Speech Department. The New Year found us hard at work on the adaptation of Maxwell Anderson's "Winterset," for festival.

The coveted roles were finally decided:

The Spring Play is being discussed as THE COLONEL goes to press. We may do "Lost Horizon." We have wanted to for some time. "Good-bye, My Fancy" is also being considered. It has been a busy, happy season!

Dear Patsey - It has been swell knowing you this year and all the others. Won't forget the fun at Jellings, Best of luck towards your senior year,

"Twenty minutes to curtain time!" yells Janet as she races to the make-up rooms!

"Did anyone see the shrunken head?" moans Jean while Mrs. Loomis, hula skirt under her arm, Japanese flag clutched in her hands, counts props for Act I; and Barbara runs for a mop to wipe up the grape juice that some member of the cast kicked over.

It is the first night of November, the opening of "Snafu" and a hit for the Masquers' first play of the season.

The next day grand notices go to Dean, Eddie, Carol, Sallie, and Eleanor, with nice words of praise for supporting actors.

The Pine Room of Hotel Roanoke buzzes with noise! Fifty-six eighth-graders get ready, under the guidance of upper-class Masquers, to march to their places for the State P. T. A. Pageant. The next day from the same stage, "And You'll Never Know" is ably presented by Carol, Hunter, and Eleanor. Another good production for the Masquers!

March 12 finds us on "tour" to Monroe Junior High with Masquers producing our Thespian Festival play, "Winterset," repeated at Drewry Mason High with high hopes!

It is the last night of February; our eager audience awaits the opening curtain on the Senior Play, "Jenny Kissed Me."

Carol, Jay, Bill, Donnie, and Sallie check their make-up and take their places. Clarence and Jo Ann check the stage; Mrs. Mason gives the signal; the curtain rises on another smash hit.

May will find us assisting the Speech Department with the spring play. Thus we chalk up "success" to another season!

The Poetry Society of William Fleming High School was organized on December 9, 1952. The purpose of the club is to promote a greater interest and an understanding of poetry. The club's colors are green and white; the motto is, "Lead a Happier Life with Poetry." Many members of the poetry club attended the regular meeting of the Virginia State Poetry Society held at Hollins College in March.

"Distribution, the Conveyor Belt of Our Economy!" Knowing the importance and value of this expression stimulated us to learn much about our profession. Much of this knowledge and information was obtained through our D. E. Club.

In September we held a joint meeting with the Jefferson and Andrew Lewis clubs; this activity included business, entertainment, and refreshments. Our own club meetings were held each month—on several occasions we had speakers from local businesses, illustrated movies, and many discussions on retailing.

To celebrate Halloween we held a party-dance—lots of laughs—juke box—sandwiches and soft drinks—another way of enjoying D. E. fellowship.

Then came Christmas, that enjoyable holiday with long hours of hard work. This season was certainly packed with thrills, spills, and chills as customers made that last-minute dash to complete shopping. Considering all, it was an invaluable experience, especially viewed from the "other" side of the counter.

Our New Year had no sooner begun than the annual Employer-Employee Banquet was held. Several weeks later was the Area Conference at which our club was well represented. Our club secretary, Joyce Smithers, won the speech contest.

In March the State Convention was held at Hotel John Marshall in Richmond—speech contest, merchandise manuals, main address by Governor Battle, dancing in the ballroom—many interesting events!

In the springtime our fancy turned to outside fireplaces, hot dogs, and picnics! Coming down the home-stretch, we were running neck and neck with "time" the greatest questioner and answerer of all ages. Our greatest decisions and challenges are still before us!

Rotas

This year saw a new club organized at Fleming. The Rotas adopted their name from the Latin word for "wheels." The main objective of the Rotas is to train the students in performing tasks ordinarily considered for the faculty in most schools. Some functions are the operation and maintenance of the public address system and the movie and slide projection machines, the selling and taking up of tickets at all school activities; watching the door and fences at games or plays to keep out non-paying participants; and the operation of lights and "floods" at such times as needed. The club is under the sponsorship of Mr. Dixon.

Students from the eighth through the twelfth grade are eligible for membership in the Library Club. They, also, become members of the Roanoke City Library Club, which is composed of students from all the high schools in the city.

Members of the club serve as assistant librarians and work at least one period during the week. They receive points for working in the library and a pin or letter upon earning 500 points.

Monthly meetings are held in which members take part on the program or special speakers are brought in.

Socials and picnics are held during the year, and all the city clubs have a joint picnic in the spring.

The Band, under the direction of Mr. Berwald, has just completed a very enjoyable year. Three years ago the Band consisted of thirteen members, but since then it has increased in number and skill.

We played at all home football games and traveled with the District Six Champions to Martinsville. We also played at several college football games.

Early in the year we went to Bristol to take part in a large parade and contest. During the year we played for assemblies, and gave concerts at other schools in the city. At Christmas we took part in the Santa Claus Parade and in a joint concert with the Jefferson Band. This is now an annual affair at Christmas.

The year was climaxed by our Third Annual Band Concert held March 21. The proceeds from this concert were used to send the band to Washington, D. C., to take part in the National A. A. A. parade held each year in May. This was the Band's biggest trip of the year.

The year was closed with a spring outing given by the Band Parents' Club to show their appreciation for the work the students put forth during the year.

Some of our students participated in All-State Band, which was held in Bluefield, West Virginia.

Since we are only losing a few by graduation, we are looking forward to a more prosperous and growing band next year.

Boys who have won athletic letters are members of the Varsity Club. The requirements for receiving a monogram are as follows:

FOOTBALL AND BASKETBALL

A monogram will be awarded to the boys who have three-fourths of the possible number of points.

1. Ten points for each quarter.
2. Ten points for each previous year of experience.
3. Ten points for participating in the first game.
4. Twenty points for participating in the last game.
5. Five points for each practice attended.

WRESTLING

A monogram will be awarded to the boys who wrestle in one-half of the possible number of matches.

TRACK

A monogram will be awarded to the boys who win first place in the district or state meets.

This year, with the thoughts of a new gym, the main project of the Varsity Club was to raise money for a new scoreboard.

This, the second full year of existence for the Girls' Athletic Association, has brought more and more girls into membership and active participation in both gym class and extracurricular athletic events.

As more girls have eagerly counted up points and greedily tried to earn enough for the coveted class numeral or the gold "F," Shirley has had to scramble to keep up with her job as Recorder of Points. Several have accumulated the necessary five hundred points and have proudly sewed their "F" on sweaters of blue or white.

Again this year the G. A. A. tried to share the joy of Christmas with a family less fortunate than they. A big basket, overflowing with staple and green groceries, cereals, milk, fresh and canned fruits, vegetables, meat, bread, candy and nuts was taken to a needy family on Christmas Eve.

In March we had a pot-luck supper honoring our league teams, both volleyball and basketball. We had lots of fun and everyone ate too much, as is the usual fault of all such suppers.

Our league teams didn't win any medals but the girls had a grand time playing and getting to know girls from other schools. We hope that we lived up to the ideals of good sportsmanship, clean, fair play, and the spirit of good fellowship that the G. A. A. tries to foster among the girls at Fleming.

The football season, as well as the basketball season, was a real joy. We attended all of the games and had much fun cheering. We really learned the true meaning of good school spirit as well as sportsmanship and fair play.

The squad is grateful to the boys for playing so hard and for being good sports, whether they won or lost, and to the students and faculty for their loyal support.

Dear Pat,
 Well, into the class of arithmetic you and I'm really enjoying going to school with you. Have a swell April!
 We had fun in French & English didn't we? Of you. I'm sure that thing I'm sure she would have a lot.
 I hope you'll never forget the play we saw at Keenoke College with. I hope to see you next year and hope I'm in some of your classes.
